_____)

The petitioner, Marcus Johnson, proceeding pro se, brought this action seeking a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. On July 13, 2010, the respondent filed a motion for summary judgment. (ECF No. 17.) By order of this court filed July 14, 2010, pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975), the petitioner was advised of the dismissal and summary judgment procedures and the possible consequences if he failed to respond adequately. (ECF No. 19.)

On August 13, 2010, the petitioner filed a motion for an extension of time to respond to the respondent's motion for summary judgment. (ECF No. 21.) The court granted the petitioner's motion by docket text order entered August 17, 2010, in which the petitioner was specifically warned that if he failed to respond, this action may be recommended for dismissal for failure to prosecute. See Davis v. Williams, 588 F.2d 69, 70 (4th Cir. 1978); Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). (ECF No. 22.)

On September 8, 2010, the petitioner filed a second motion for an extension of time to respond to the respondent's motion for summary judgment. (ECF No. 25.) The court granted the petitioner's motion by docket text order entered September 9, 2010, again warning the petitioner that failure to comply may result in the dismissal of his Petition for failure to prosecute. (ECF No. 26.)

Despite his extensions of time and notwithstanding the specific warning and instructions set forth in the court's Roseboro order, the petitioner failed to respond to the respondent's motion. Therefore, the petitioner meets all of the criteria for dismissal under Chandler Leasing Corp.v. Lopez, 669 F.2d 919 (4th Cir. 1982).¹

RECOMMENDATION

Accordingly, it is recommended that this action be dismissed with prejudice for lack of prosecution. See Davis, 558 F.2d at 70; Ballard v. Carlson, 882 F.2d 93, 95 (4th Cir. 1989) (stating that magistrate judge's prior explicit warning that a recommendation of dismissal would result from the petitioner failing to obey his order was proper grounds for the district court to dismiss the suit when the petitioner did not comply despite the warning), cert. denied sub nom, Ballard v. Volunteers of America, 493 U.S. 1084 (1990); Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). In light of the court's recommendation, the court further recommends that any pending motions (ECF No. 17) be terminated.

The parties' attention is directed to the important notice on the next page.

¹He is personally responsible for proceeding in a dilatory fashion, the respondent is suffering prejudice by continuing to have these claims clouding their careers and continuing to incur legal expenses, and no sanctions appear to exist other than dismissal given the previous warnings and extensions provided.
